Have determined by resolution of their Board of Trustees to dispose of the balance of their property and wind up the Company's business AT ONCE, and will sell without reserve at AUCTION
Five Hundred Town Lots!
In the Railroad Addition to the town of Pomeroy.

This will present a Rare Opportunity for Speculation, as the prospects for the future growth at Pomeroy are better than that of any other town in Washington Territory. This Addition being in a valley one-third of a mile wide, the hills rising on each side to the height of over 500 feet, is geographically so situated that the city cannot extend in any other direction. The lots comprise with but few exceptions all the available ground for RESIDENCES or BUSINESS PURPOSES, and in the future extension of Pomeroy, the growth can only be in the direction of the above Railroad Addition, the passenger, freight depots and warehouses being located in the center of these Lots, which are all in the city limits. Pomeroy is the county seat of Garfield County, and already is a thriving town of over 1000 population, with fine schools, three weekly newspapers, and is the terminus of the Starbuck & Pomeroy Railroad, a branch line of the O. R. & N., and there is more fertile agricultural land tributary to it than any other town in Oregon or Washington Territory, and there is but little doubt of its doubling its population within the next two years.

Terms of Sale:

This Auction Sale will commence at 10 o'clock A. M., Court day, October 4th, 1886, and will continue until all the Lots are sold.

Serious Danger
Threatens every man, woman or child living in a region of country where fever and ague is prevalent, since the germs of malarial disease are inhaled from the air and are swallowed from the water of such a region. Medicinal safeguard is absolutely necessary to nullify this danger. As a means of fortifying and acclimating the system so as to be able to resist the malarial poison, Hostetter's stomach Bitters is incomparably the best and the most popular. Irregularities of the stomach, liver and bowels encourage malaria; but these are speedily rectified by the Bitters. The functions of digestion and secretion are assisted by its use, and a vigorous as well as regular condition of the system promoted by it. Constitution and physique are thus defended against the inroads of malaria by this matchless preventive, which is also a certain and thorough remedy in the worst cases of intermittent and remittent fevers.

WASHINGTON.

A Consul Makes an Exhaustive Study of Beer Drinking.

ANOTHER BOND CALL ISSUED.

Senator Beck Said to have Deserted the Silver Men—A Lieutenant Returns from the Lena Delta—Washington Notes.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 27.—Consul Tanner of Chemnitz, reports to the secretary of state that the beer production of Germany in 1885 was 1,100,000,000 gallons, enough to form a lake more than one mile square and six and a half feet deep, or it would make a running stream as large as some of our rivers. He says the consumption of intoxicants in Germany per head is four times as great as in the United States, yet there are a thousand persons drunk in the United States to ten in Germany. The difference arises largely, he says, if not entirely, from the manner of drinking in vogue in the countries. "This science of drinking," he writes, "consists simply in tardiness of drinking. All drinks are taken sip by sip, half or three-quarters of an hour being consumed for a glass of beer. This is so simple that one is liable to be ridiculed for laying stress upon it, and yet on this one point hinges, in my opinion, a question of vast importance to Americans. By this manner of drinking the blood is aroused to greater activity in so gradual a manner that there is no violent derangement of the animal economy. By slow drinking, the German accomplishes the object of drinking, and gives his animal economy a chance to say, 'Hold, enough!' which only slow drinking will do." Mr. Tanner says that since his arrival in Germany he has his "first glass of water to see drunk."

BOND CALL.

Fifteen Million Dollars of the Three Per Cent. Loan of 1882 to be Redeemed.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 27.—The acting secretary of the treasury this afternoon issued the one hundred and forty-third call for redemption of bonds. The call is for $15,000,000, 3 per cent. loan of 1882, and notice is given that the principal and accrued interest of the bonds hereinbelow designated will be paid at the treasury of the United States, city of Washington, on the 1st day of November, 1886, and that interest on said bonds will cease that day, viz: Three per cent. bonds issued under act of congress approved July 12, 1882, and numbered as follows: $50, original number 50 to original number 55, both inclusive; $100, original number 641 to original number 776, both inclusive; $1000, original number 2435 to original number 2854, both inclusive; $10,000, original number 7309 to original number 8810, both inclusive; total, $15,000,000.

The bonds described above are either bonds of the "original" issue, which have but one serial number at each end, or substitute bonds, which may be distinguished by a double set of numbers, which are marked plainly "original numbers" and "substitute numbers." All of the bonds of this loan will be called by the original numbers only.

Three months' interest due November 1, 1886, on the above described bonds, will not be paid by checks forwarded to the holders of the bonds, but will be paid with the principal to the holders at the time of presentation. Parties holding bonds called by this circular can obtain immediate payment, with interest to date of presentation, by requesting the same in a letter, and forwarding their bonds for redemption.

Many of the bonds originally included in the above numbers have been transferred or exchanged into other denominations, on a "waiver," the original numbers being canceled, or have been redeemed under the circular of September 15, 1815, and leaving outstanding the apparent amount above stated.

THE THREE PER CENTS.

A statement prepared by the treasury department shows the status of the 3 per cent. loan at the close of business to-day, as follows: Total loan, $305,581,250; redeemed in 1883, $52,250, surrendered under the circular of August 30, 1886, $788,000; circular of September 15, 1886, $806,550; called, $228,016,250; uncalled, $75,539,200.

THE SILVER QUESTION.

Senator Beck Said to have Deserted to the Administration.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 27.—President Cleveland is still making efforts to bring about the suspension of the coinage of silver and has been industriously at work among members of his party who oppose him in this particular. It is claimed by anti-silver men that he has been enabled to get Senator Beck to modify his views upon this question. This result is said to have been brought about through the influence of ex-Senator McDonald, of Indiana. Beck was persistent in his efforts, in conjunction with Bland of Missouri, Warner of Ohio, and Miller and Keegan of Texas, to overthrow the policy of the administration touching the subject of coinage, and his change of front, as reported, though silver advocates take no stock in the story, caused much surprise.

It is stated by friends of the administration that a change of sentiment against coinage has been brought about by the administration among members of Southern delegations in congress, though of this there is no confirmation. However, if unsuccessful at the next session, the administration hopes to see a congress elected the present fall that will, when it meets a year hence, conform to its views on the silver question, the president being especially desirous of having suspension take place during his administration, and to that end will do what he can to select such men to the Fiftieth congress as will be pledged to serve this policy. It is the intention to keep up the fight on silver so long as there is hope of bringing about the suspension of its coinage.

WASHINGTON NEWS ITEMS.

THE TARIFF QUESTION IN EUROPE.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 27.—Consul-General Heap, Constantinople, reports to the secretary of state progress made by the Turkish government in concert with delegates from Great Britain, Germany, Russia and Italy, in framing a new tariff. He says he has carefully examined the new tariff, as far as agreed upon, and with a few exceptions thinks the rates reasonable and moderate. The most important articles, in the value of imports from the United States, are petroleum and alcohol, upon which it is proposed to fix a duty of 20 per cent. ad valorem, the highest rate in the list, but he thinks this will be reduced to 18 per cent. Heap was himself appointed, at the request of the Porte, a delegate to concert with the Turkish delegates in forming the tariff, but after having notified the delegates of his appointment and readiness to act he was informed that the Turkish delegates did not think it necessary to discuss the tariff with an American delegate, and that they considered it would be sufficient to present it in the form agreed upon by the other powers to the United States legation.

"Whilst it is true," he writes, "that a tariff accepted by governments that have the largest commercial interests with Turkey can be adopted with safety by the United States, for Russia will obtain the lowest possible rate on petroleum, and Austria on spirits, alcohol, etc., and we shall moreover enjoy whatever advantages may be accorded to the most favored nations, the action of the Turkish delegates does not seem to be in accordance with repeated requests of the Sublime Porte for the United States to appoint a delegate on the tariff commission."

A GLOOMY REPORT FROM ITALY.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 27.—Vice-Consul Toubay, at Turin, in concluding his report to the department of state upon agriculture in Italy, says: Grain growers in that district are reduced to a desperate condition by taxes, high rents, and above all by competition from the United States. The agrarian question in Italy, he says, is growing to be the great national problem; and as for the last five or six years cultivation of the soil has been conducted always without profit, and just now at dead loss, mutterings of discontent in the rural districts are growing alarming. The Italian peasant is hopelessly ignorant, and although he possesses the right of being represented in parliament and insisting upon some legitimate measure of relief, such as reduction of the heavy taxation under which he specially labors, he cannot extend his reason beyond his field, and his wrath is particularly directed against the landed proprietors, who are seemingly better off than himself, but who in reality have to share the same burdens. It is the old specter of socialism, and unless a remedy be found, and that quickly, there is strong likelihood of trouble, not only in Piedmont, but all over this kingdom.

BACK FROM THE LENA DELTA.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 27.—Lieut. William H. Scheutz, U. S. N., who was sent to the Lena delta to distribute presents made by the government to natives who rendered assistance to the Jeannette survivors, returned to Washington yesterday, and this morning reported in person to the secretary of state. Lieut. Scheutz found many of the natives of the delta in a state of destitution and some at the point of starvation. The recipients of the presents were greatly surprised, and celebrated the event tumultuously, by firing off guns and otherwise. Such of the presents as were adapted to the purpose were donned at once, and were thereafter worn conspicuously outside of the fur garments of their lucky owners. Lieut. Scheutz's official report to the secretary has not yet been made complete.

AN APPEAL BY SHIP OWNERS.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 27.—A delegation of New York ship owners engaged in the Cuban trade, headed by Mr. John E. Alexander of the New York, Havana & Mexican steamship line, and Mr. W. F. Hughes, of the Ward line of Cuban steamers, called at the White house and state department to-day, to lay before the president and Secretary Bayard their complaints respecting commercial relations with the Spanish West Indies. During this interview with the president the whole question at issue with Spain was discussed, and the president was fully informed of the views and wishes of the American shipping interest. An appeal was made to the president to secure from Spain an honest observance of the agreement made, or to re-establish discriminating duties which congress had imposed on certain traffic, which have been suspended by the president's proclamation. The delegation feel confident that the president will put an early termination to the unfair condition of matters in Cuban ports.

A VERY IMPORTANT DECISION.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 27.—Acting Secretary Muldrow has rendered a very important decision, involving the constitutional provision that "full faith and credit shall be given by each state to the acts, records and judicial proceedings of every other state," carrying out the doctrine that where a court of one state, having jurisdiction, renders judgment, that that judgment is conclusive of all matters determined therein, and is binding on the courts of every other state. Secretary Muldrow extends this exposition of the doctrine to the executive departments. The case comes up upon an important land matter from Louisiana. The decision is said to be an able one, and is understood to be a reversal of one rendered by Secretary Schurz.

THE NEW CRUISERS.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 27.—The new steel cruiser Boston, which suffered some damage two or three weeks ago from the falling of one of her tops, has been repaired, and it is expected she will be finished and ready to go into commission within two or three weeks. The Chicago, the last and largest of the four steel cruisers authorized by congress in 1883, will probably be finished by the 1st of February.

A REPORT FROM HAVANA.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 27.—Consul-General Williams at Havana transmits a report to the secretary of state which shows that nearly 94 per cent. of all the sugar-cane product of Cuba for the first quarter of this year found consuming markets in the United States.

WASHINGTON NOTES.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 27.—Secretary Bayard leaves Washington to-day for a short vacation. He goes to Boston and expects to be absent one week.

The president to-day appointed Wm. G. Allen, of South Carolina, to be United States consul to Piedras Negras, Mexico.

The issue of standard dollars from the mints during the week ending September 25 was $373,000. During the corresponding period of last year it was $664,000.

The treasury department has declined to give permission for the importation free of duty of fishing boats and fishing appliances from Canada for temporary use in the United States, as it is not authorized by law.

The new oleomargarine stamp will be ready for general distribution about the middle of next month.

The president has recognized Rufino Velez as vice-consul of Mexico at Tucson, Arizona, and Peter I. Cherry as British vice-consul at Astoria, Oregon.

AN UNFORTUNATE REPORTER.

He is Unmercifully Cowhided by an Angry Young Lady.

JERSEY CITY, N. J., Sept. 27.—On Tuesday last the Evening Journal published a sensational article charging that two young ladies moving in first circles had committed forgery, raising checks given them by their fathers from $6 to $60 and from $10 to $100. No names were given, but a pretty close description was given. On Friday night the writer of the article, a reporter by the name of Lenhart, was decoyed into a saloon and assaulted by Raymond Gilchrist, son of ex-Attorney-General Gilchrist of New Jersey, it being understood he was acting on behalf of the daughters of Thomas Gannon, a wealthy coppersmith.

This evening reporter Lenhart was assigned to report a session of the board of public works. While the board was in session Miss Amie Gannon, the elder sister, stole up within reaching distance of him and proceeded to belabor him unmercifully with a cowhide. The room was quickly in an uproar, the lobby taking sides with the young lady, and the officers of the board undertaking to protect the reporter. The enraged young woman was finally separated from the object of her vengeance, and was accompanied home by her father and a number of friends, while the reporter, after adjournment of the board, was accompanied home by a policeman. The affair has created a decided sensation on account of the prominence of the persons involved. Young Gilchrist has been arrested on a charge of assault and conspiracy.

A GREAT SOUTH AMERICAN SCHEME.

NEW YORK, Sept. 27.—Senor Jose B. Samanes y Ocampo, governor of the state of Amazonas, Peru, says the Times, is now in New York, but will start Saturday for the Amazon. Speaking of a gigantic scheme of establishing a direct line of passage from the Atlantic ocean to the Pacific, from the mouth of the Amazon river to Lima, in Peru, which was begun in 1871 by the Peruvian government and interrupted by the war between Peru and Chili, he said: "Last February the Peruvian government awarded M. P. Grace, of the firm of W. R. Grace & Co., of New York, the contract to finish the Meiggs railroad to Cerro de Pasco and he is actually at work. It will probably take from five to six years to complete the entire work of railroad and wagon road from Cerro de Pasco to Porto Nuevo, on the Amazon, and it will probably cost from fifteen to twenty million dollars. Grace accepted the contract under condition that he would build the road himself, and then for ninety nine years from the beginning of the work, or until 1985, he and his heirs are to derive all benefits and emoluments accruing therefrom. At the end of that time the Peruvian government is to acquire possession of the whole thing. The scheme by the government is not so much meant as a money making venture, but is especially intended to develop and populate that portion of Peru."

FOUND A DYNAMITE BOMB.

ST. LOUIS, Sept. 22.—Citizens of South St. Louis are thoroughly aroused over finding a dynamite bomb in the office of John M. Conrad, keeper of a livery stable, at 6,807 South Broadway. When Mr. Conrad went to his stable yesterday morning he found a small chalk box, from which a fuse, partially burned, protruded, lying in the doorway. He picked up the box, carefully removed its lid, and was horrified to see, neatly packed in sand and saw dust, a regular Chicago anarchist dynamite bomb. The police were at once notified, and they took charge of the bomb and carried it to the police station, where it was thoroughly examined. The instrument of destruction was a cast-iron shell, resembling in shape a duck egg, about three inches in diameter and six in circumference, and filled with dynamite and bullets, with an opening in the top to admit the fuse. Why any one should desire to destroy his stables Mr. Conrad is at a loss to know.

A Valuable Remedy.

Brandreth's Pills have been used by millions of human beings. Their success is founded upon the theory of reason, and an attentive observation of symptoms of disease. "Whatever makes bad digestion breeds disease, and whatever makes good digestion cures disease. Brandreth's Pills make good digestion, purify the blood, and remove all bad humors out of the body by the organs of the stomach and bowels. They act in harmony with vital action and work nutrition; the strength increases, the skin and the eye becomes clear, and the symptoms of the malady are surely rendered milder by their use. They are harmless for all ages and conditions.

A Wordy Tilt between Oarsmen Hanlan and Beach.

ZORILLA THE RAGE OF THE DAY.

The Peace of Europe Still in Danger—King Otto Crazier than Ever—Spanish Insurgents Escape to France—Etc.

LONDON, Sept. 27.—Edward Hanlan has challenged Wm. Beach to row a race on the Thames for any sum up to $25,000, and has offered to row him in America or Australia, Hanlan to give Beach $1000 in the former case, and Beach to give Hanlan $1000 in the latter. Beach has declined all challenges.

A TIFF BETWEEN HANLAN AND BEACH.

LONDON, Sept. 27.—A boat race for £100 a side, between Largan and the Australian oarsman, Nielsen, took place to-day on the Thames from Putney to Mortlake. It was won by Nielsen, who finished alone.

Beach and Hanlan witnessed the race from the deck of a steamer. On meeting, the champion and ex-champion showed marked coldness, not even shaking hands. Beach said he would not row in America if Hanlan offered him the whole of America to do so. He said he would row on the Parametta, and would lay Hanlan £1000 against £800, but he would not pay Hanlan's traveling expenses. The dispute continued for some time. Hanlan was greatly annoyed by Beach, and called him a gas-bag.

Hanlan has deposited £100 in challenge to Beach for a race on the Thames or Tyne, for £500 a side and the championship of the world. He offers to meet Beach to-morrow to arrange the match.

SPEECH BY MRS. PARNELL.

LONDON, Sept. 27.—Mrs. Parnell, addressing a meeting in Liverpool this evening, said Americans looked to the Irish to uphold democratic principles in their demand for home rule. In past victories Irishmen had achieved no greater victory than that of controlling their tempers. Their chance had come. England was in arms against Ireland, which America was rejoiced to see.

TRYING TO MAKE BLACK WHITE.

BERLIN, Sept. 27.—The North German Gazette, in an article denying that the great powers ousted Prince Alexander, maintains that even Russia placed no difficulty in the way of Alexander's remaining at Sofia. It says: "The czar's personal aversion for Alexander was no new thing. For the past five or six years the prince had believed himself able to bear Russia's wrath without prejudicing the interests of Bulgaria. Therefore it behooves newspapers favorable to Alexander to explain the real motives of his abdication. If the newspapers fail to offer an explanation, the German and Austrian parliaments must do so."

SPAIN.

ZORILLA THE RAGE OF THE WEEK.

NEW YORK, Sept. 27.—A Times Paris cablegram says: For the moment peninsular politics is the rage, and no journal respects itself unless it has interviewed Zorilla, who affably, not to say garrulously, receives journalists at his comfortable habitation in the avenue McMahon. Of course he says the outbreak was unexpected and premature, and he was in entire ignorance of it and so on, but he can find no believers this time. The thing was too patent and barefaced for even Parisian credulity. Spanish funds were sold short here on the bourse the day before the abortive rising, and at the same time in Barcelona and several other Spanish towns and at Frankfort. Operations are said to have been enormous. Unfortunately for numerous swindlers, the decline was very small and short-lived. It is not believed that they have made much out of the haul. Back of Zorilla are a cold-blooded syndicate of adventurers. Zorilla is now more careful of appearances here, it is said, from a great danger of extradition at the hands of De Freycinet, but this is scarcely a valid reason, for more than one minister here is suspected of having fortuitously dreamed about a fall in Spanish funds just at the proper time before each of Zorilla's demonstrations, and it is certain that he is on friendly and intimate terms with several of them.

THE IRISH QUESTION IN CANADA.

KINGSTON, Ont., Sept. 27.—After the loyalist delegates, Dr. Kane and G. H. Smith, had addressed a large meeting here to-night two resolutions were put, one sympathizing with Ireland, and the other, by W. Robinson, ex-M. P., recommending that the British parliament grant Ireland self-government to the same extent it is enjoyed by Canada. Cheers, hisses and loud talking followed the introduction of the latter resolution, and then the lie regarding the business of the delegates was hurled across the table. Cheers were given for Parnell, and Robinson told Kane he was mistaken if he thought he could change the views of the Canadian members of parliament by his speeches. After much disputation the chairman put both resolutions, and the one of sympathy was passed, and Robinson's rejected.

STRUCK AN ICEBERG.

ST. JOHNS, N. F., Sept. 27.—The British schooner Lady Agnes struck on an iceberg on Monday last when thirty-eight miles southeast of Baccalieu island, and became a partial wreck. The crew had a marvelous escape. They drove seaward in a violent gale from west-northwest, and were seven days at sea pumping. The iceberg was of mountainous hight, bearing sixty miles due east from St. Johns. With the force of the sea-wash she butted and rammed it frequently, and barely escaped afloat from its fearful suction. She arrived at St. Johns this morning.

PLEURO-PNEUMONIA.

Efforts of the Department of Agriculture to Suppress the Disease.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 27.—The bureau of agriculture is actively engaged in devising and putting in operation measures looking to the extirpation of pleuro pneumonia, and Commissioner Coleman has resolved to adopt every legitimate means in his power to check the outbreak of the disease reported from Chicago. Commissioner Coleman says people must be crazy to think the department will permit any of these cattle to be sold. "We have guaranteed them, doubled our forces Saturday, and are now going to send some of the meat to expert veterinary surgeons. We have to stamp out the disease, and do everything that the department can legitimately do. We did not get through congress the bill we expected to pass on the subject, so we can only second the efforts of state authorities, and assist in carrying out state laws. Under existing laws we can only stamp out the disease in a state with the permission of the local authorities. Some times the governor of a state will not consent to federal interference, so we can only second their efforts."

The commissioner has drawn up and forwarded to the governors of all the states and territories a series of rules and regulations for co-operation between the United States department of agriculture and the authorities of every state and territory, for suppression and extirpation of contagious pleuro-pneumonia, and if they received the consent of the state authorities the bureau will make a systematic and determined attempt to stamp out the disease by attacking simultaneously every infected district.

THE RULES.

Following are the rules issued for following the discovery of pleuro-pneumonia: "If inspection is necessary inspectors will be furnished by the bureau of animal industry of the department of agriculture. Properly constituted inspectors of the bureau of animal industry, which are assigned to respective states, are to be authorized by the proper state authorities to make inspections of cattle under the laws of the state. They are to receive such information and assistance as would be given to state officers engaged in similar work, and shall be permitted to examine quarantined herds whenever so desired by the commissioner of agriculture or the chief of the bureau of animal industry. All reports of inspections will be made to the bureau of animal industry, and a copy of those will then be made and forwarded to the proper state authorities. When, however, any inspector discovers a herd infected with contagious pleuro-pneumonia, he will at once report the same to the proper state authorities as well as to the bureau of animal industry. The inspectors, while subject to orders from the department of agriculture, will cordially co-operate with the state authorities, and will follow instructions received from them.

When contagious pleuro-pneumonia is discovered in any herd, the owner is to be at once notified by the inspector, and the quarantine regulations of the state in which the herd is located are to be enforced from that time. The affected animals will be isolated, whenever possible, until they can be properly appraised and slaughtered. To insure perfect satisfactory quarantine, a chain fastened with a numbered lock will be placed around the horns, or with hornless animal around the neck, and a record will be kept showing the number of the lock placed on each animal in the herd.

Locks and chains will be furnished by the department of agriculture, but they will become the property of the state in which they are used, in order that any one tampering with them can be proceeded against for injuring or embezzlement of the property of the state.

REMOVAL OF QUARANTINE.

Quarantine restrictions, once imposed, are not to be removed by state authority without consent of the proper officials of the department of agriculture. The period of quarantine will be at least ninety days, dating from the removal of diseased animals from the herd. During this period no animal will be allowed to enter a herd or to leave it, and all animals in the herd will be carefully isolated from other cattle. When possible all infected herds are to be held in quarantine and not allowed to leave infected premises, except for slaughter. Animals may be added to the herd at the owner's risk, but are to be considered as infected animals, subject to the same quarantine regulations as other members of the herd.

All animals infected with contagious pleuro-pneumonia are to be slaughtered as soon after their discovery as the necessary arrangements can be made.

When diseased animals are reported to the state authorities they shall promptly take such steps as they desire to confirm the diagnosis. Animals found diseased are then to be appraised, according to the provisions of the state law, and the proper officers of the bureau of animal industry, who will be designated by the commissioner of agriculture, notified of the appraisement. If this representative of the bureau of animal industry confirms the diagnosis and approves the appraisement, the department of agriculture will purchase the diseased animals of the owner and pay such proportion of the appraised value as is provided for compensation in such cases by the laws of the state in which the animals are located.

When they are condemned and slaughtered by state authority all necessary disinfection will be conducted by employes of the bureau of animal industry.

CONCERNING INOCULATION.

Inoculation is not recommended by the department of agriculture, and it is believed that its adoption with animals that are to be sold to go into other herds would counteract good results which would otherwise follow from the slaughter of diseased animals. It may, however, be practiced by state authorities under the following rules: No herds but those in which pleuro-pneumonia has appeared are to be inoculated. Inoculated herds are to be quarantined with a lock and chain on each animal, quarantine restrictions to remain in force as long as any inoculated cattle survive, and these animals are to leave the premises only for immediate slaughter. Fresh animals are to be taken into inoculated herds only at the risk of the owner, and shall be subject to the same rules as other cattle of the inoculated herd. The chief of the bureau of animal industry is to be promptly notified by the state authorities of each herd inoculated, final disposition of each member of the herd, post mortem appearance, and of any other facts in the history of the herd which may prove of value.

Co-operation of farmers, state live stock commissions, and of other officers who may be in charge of branches of the service provided for control of contagious diseases of animals in states where pleuro-pneumonia exists, is earnestly requested under these rules and regulations, which have been framed with a view to securing uniform and efficient action throughout the infected district. It is hoped that with vigorous enforcement of such regulations the disease may be prevented from extending beyond the present limits and may be in time entirely eradicated.

NORMAN J. COLEMAN,
Commissioner of Agriculture.

WISCONSIN TAKES PRECAUTIONS.

MILWAUKEE, Sept. 17.—Gov. Rusk to-day issued a proclamation forbidding the importation of cattle from Illinois, except when accompanied by a certificate of health from the state veterinary surgeon of that state, or the inspector of the United States bureau of animal industry.

The Oregonian.

PORTLAND, TUESDAY, SEPT 28, 1886.

STATESMANSHIP OUT OF FASHION.

Oregonians whose remembrance goes back to the days when such men as Lansing Stout, John R. McBride, Rufus Mallory, J. N Dolph, George H. Williams, M P Deady, et al, sat in the state legislature do not need to be told that in personal make-up our legislative body has degenerated. In the earlier times there was some serious and statesman-like discussion of measures as they came up, in very striking contrast with the lack of it of late years. During the last three sessions there has been little real consideration of proposed laws, rarely a statement of views for or against, and never on the floor of the legislature anything like an exhaustive argument upon any question involving principles of government or public policy The discreditable truth is that in the last few legislatures we have had the fewest number of men intelligent as to the subjects of legislation and capable of discussing them Measures are not argued, and, as a rule, members lack both the knowledge and the training for debate It goes without saying that they lack als the intelligence to vote with any sort of comprehension or wisdom.

It is easy to account for this change. It is due wholly to the system of personal politics in practice in this state during the past fifteen years. Is he honest? Is he capable? Will he represent the people? These questions are never or rarely asked in making up legislative tickets. Instead, tickets are "fixed" in some saloon or in somebody's back office, and the questions are Can he be managed? Will he "stand in"? Will he stay bought? The professional managers, acting as mercenary agents for the central boss, in these latter days, relieve the people of the trouble of making nominations. To expect honest or capable legislation from bodies two-thirds made up in this would be folly.

With the change in the quality of membership in the legislature the whole method of legislation has changed. We find that such business as involves no serious conflict of interests, no matter what principles may underlie it, goes through by general consent, and that other business is "worked" by a practice, well nigh developed into a system, of barter and swap. A B D and E have each a pet bill, and each pledges his support to all the others for their support in return. Under such a contract there can be no criticism of measures and there is, of course, no examination of them. These contracts are made not only between individual members but between general delegations. For example, last winter the Portland delegation "stood in" with the valley delegation for an appropriation of $10,000 for the state fair in return for the support of the valley delegation for an appropriation of an equal sum for an immigration office at Portland Eastern Oregon "stood in" for a bridge at Grant's Pass in exchange for the support of Southern Oregon for the Pine creek road bill. And so, in innumerable instances. Measures are not considered upon their individual merits but succeed or fail because of their connection or lack of it with other schemes. The practice is vicious, of course. It loads the statute books with bad laws and drains the treasury for improper schemes. It reduces legislation to the level of stock jobbing and seats trickery in the chair of statesmanship

The remedy lies with the public. A wholesome sentiment will cure these evils but nothing else will When members of the legislature find trickery condemned and straightforward honesty applauded, the methods of legislation will change Members of the body to meet at Salem this coming winter ought to be reminded by their constituents that honesty and a straightforward course will be more appreciated than smartness and "management."

Mr William E Morris of this city thinks THE OREGONIAN has not correctly stated the position of Henry George on the land question and hence he writes to say

Mr George simply voices the wishes of the American people when he says that the large part of our domain now held by land sharks, by lords, dukes, barons and others of Europe who never saw this country and by all railroads that have not complied with their charters, shall revert to the public

But this is by no means an adequate statement of Mr George's position It may be good as far as it goes but it is not the "philosophy" that has made him somewhat famous. His central idea is that "nothing short of making land common property can permanently relieve poverty and check the tendency of wages to the starvation point" The remedy he proposes is the "nationalization of land" This simply means, as heretofore stated, the seizure and conversion to the common use of private property in land, with or without compensation to the owners. Mr Morris thinks THE OREGONIAN has not acted in a fair and impartial manner—that it has tried to "dodge"—in its replies to another correspondent on this subject There is no occasion for 'dodging.' THE OREGONIAN has simply stated the central idea or doctrine of the philosophy of Henry George, and that's all there is about it.

A Relic of the Villard Era.

Springfield (Mass) Republican

The difference of over $5,000,000 in the claims of the Northern Pacific and Oregon Transcontinental against each other is a disgraceful relic of the Villard era. The Oregon Transcontinental charge of 10 and 15 per cent. commission for advances and the use of collateral will hardly win laurels for that concern The rise of the Oregon properties carries the present market value of the solid assets of the Transcontinental up to $21,000,000, or, minus the floating debt $13,350,000, which if divided up would give $33 40 per share. The present quotation of the stock is therefore not too high, as regards the prospective value of the property.

THE CANADIAN PACIFIC.

A Portland Man's Travels—Superior Equipment of the Road—Grand Scenery—En Route for Montreal.

[Correspondence of the Oregonian]

DONALD, B C., Sept. 22

The Canadian Pacific railway with a continuous track of over 3000 miles reaching practically from ocean to ocean is in many respects the strongest and most important line in North America. Thoroughly built and ballasted it enters the field of competition with a roadbed almost as smooth as that of the far-famed Pennsylvania Central Though completed nearly a year ago, it was not opened for traffic till July 5, when the first through train went East Of the equipment nothing too extravagant can be said Every modern appliance of proven value has been adopted by this line regardless of cost. A few years ago steel rails were advertised as the special attraction of Eastern roads. Then came the Miller platform, followed by the air brake, to reduce the chances of danger Meanwhile luxurious sleepers and palace drawing room cars were added, and it was thought then when dining and buffet cars were attached to regular trains nothing more could be done to contribute to the traveler's comfort But the Canadian Pacific has outstripped them all In providing cars as far ahead of Pullman's best as the latter is of an ordinary emigrant sleeper. They are a once drawing room sleeper and observation cars, richly upholstered and most elaborately finished They were not built by a corporation [illegible] large that they must sink a shaft [illegible] building towns in order to divert public attention from their enormous earnings a corporation which protects itself against its own employes by an army of spotters but provides no protection whatever against the robbery of its patrons

The sleeping and dining departments are both a part of the Canadian Pacific system A novel and most agreeable feature is the bath room to which the first class patrons of this line have access, though the trip thus far has been very free from dust

Attached to our train is the favorite car of Vice-President Van Horne which took through Sir Edward Watkins and party. A modest fee to "Jimmy" French, the porter in charge, secured for us the freedom of this coach A box on the platform holding about two bushels of "dead soldiers," would suggest that Sir Edward would not care to live in Maine Iowa or La Camas

The meals served in the dining cars of this line from Port Moody to Quebec would tempt the appetite of an epicure Green fruits and vegetables from California come by every steamer, and the bill of fare is as elaborate as possible Fermented liquors only are sold on the train

At Victoria we took the Canadian Pacific Navigation company's steamer at 10 o'clock and arrived at Vancouver the next morning at 9. One would hardly believe that three months ago this town was swept out of existence by fire Substantial dwellings have gone up in every direction, a fine wharf has been built and if a new charter can be had from the Canadian parliament, which meets next spring the road will be immediately extended from Port Moody to this point. Most of the grading has already been done but the extension labors under the same incubus as a Portland bridge, viz an injunction The track, following the shore of Burrard inlet, will command a splendid view of this arm of the Sound, the scenery of which is similar to that of the lower Columbia. A feeling of uncertainty as to "syndicate" purposes dampens the perfect faith of two months ago in Vancouver's future Many who have invested their last dollar in property here will let go before spring However, there is little doubt that Vancouver will be the Canadian Pacific's western terminus in name, while Victoria will always be in fact.

Leaving Port Moody at 13 o clock (1 P M) we follow the Fraser river to Lytton, a distance of 144 miles. Much of the country for the first fifty miles has been settled since 1857 Trees and mountains rivers and canyons in their infinite combinations present an endless variety of scenery which the traveler regrets to leave when it becomes too dark to see more. At Yale ninety miles from Moody where the Fraser comes out of the Cascades there is a most beautiful scene It would be idle for the writer to attempt to describe it It seems as if creative power had been taxed to its utmost to prepare for this route a matchless beauty and grandeur and variety of scenery

This morning at [illegible] we crossed the Columbia at Revelstoke (formerly Farwell) It seemed like meeting an old friend The town is located in an amphitheater surrounded by mountains capped with eternal snow Here the road enters the Selkirk range This place is the base of supplies for the Big Bend country where some of the richest mines of British Columbia are located After leaving the Fraser at Lytton we follow its tributary the Thompson then Eagle river through Eagle pass, until we cross the Columbia along whose tributary the Illecillewaet, the track winds till we reach Glacier Hotel, a few miles from the summit of the Selkirks M

THE "LAW AND ORDER" ISSUE

CHEHALIS W T Sept 23 1886

TO THE EDITOR OF THE OREGONIAN

As your live and independent journal has ever been willing that public opinion should be freely expressed in its columns whether or not it accords with your editorial utterances I should like, with your permission to reply to one of your editorial paragraphs in the daily issue of September 20th

Allow me to say that the democrats of this territory if I understand them are not persisting in making their canvass in opposition to the stand taken by Gov Squire and upheld by the law abiding people, during the Tacoma and Seattle riots" The democrats of the territory, I think are all inclined to work harmoniously for the election of Mr Voorhees. Not only are democrats working for his election but hundreds of conscientious republicans also who believe his re-election would be by far for the best interests of the territory

As to Gov Squire or Judge Greene's action in regard to the Tacoma and Seattle riots, there is an evident and manifest diversity of opinion even among the best citizenship that graces this territory And there is nothing more certain than that some of the most prominent members of the democratic organization are doing their utmost to re-elect Mr Voorhees fully endorsed every official act last winter of both those federal officers As far as Judge Greene is concerned every fair minded citizen must defend him, for his only act that occasioned criticism was the refusing of warrants for the arrest of certain parties who in their great endeavor to maintain the supremacy of lawful authority fought and even killed and wounded some of the rioters Judge Greene's refusal to issue those warrants was based upon the fact that the city of Seattle had been declared under martial law and to have ordered the arrest of any of the militia under such circumstances would, in an hour of extreme doubt and peril have made a clash between the judicial and military authorities. In my own mind I have always doubted and I now sincerely doubt either the wisdom or necessity at the time it occurred of Gov Squire's declaration of martial law and his call upon the president for federal troops There was no imminent danger of anarchy and a riot is not sufficient cause for declaring martial law nor for menacing the peaceable citizens of Seattle with the glittering bayonets of government troops If this sentiment is not endorsed by at least a part of Mr Bradshaw's supporters I am sadly mistaken. I am well aware that the major portion of the republican candidate's following is as if constituted law and [illegible], under the special care and [illegible] of the Northern Pacific railroad company [illegible]

LOCAL AND GENERAL.

A. & T. RAILROAD.—The company lately formed to build the Astoria & Tillamook railway is not a mere concern on paper, but really means business. The road from Astoria to the Seaside house will, it is expected, be built this winter. It will start from Astoria and cross Young's river where it is a mile in width, the right for the bridge having been secured from congress last winter. One object in building this road is to accommodate the summer travel to the seaside. Another is to transport rock for the government works at the mouth of the Columbia. In the ridge between the ocean and Lewis and Clarke rivers have been found ledges of sandstone and basaltic rock. The sandstone is about ten miles from Fort Stevens and the basalt about fifteen. Quarries are now being opened, but it has not yet been decided which kind of rock will be used. The road will probably be built around to Nehalem eventually, as there is in that valley one of the largest and finest bodies of timber yet untouched in the Northwest. The prospect of having this railroad has awakened a desire for more, and for several days past Astorians have been earnestly discussing the prospects of securing railroad communication with Portland.

GRAND UNION MEETING.—The union mass meeting which was announced to take place in the Young Men's Christian association hall to-morrow (Wednesday) evening will be changed to the tabernacle on account of the deep interest that seems to be manifested in the service. The board of directors of the association feel confident that the association hall will not accommodate one half the people who will be anxious to hear Major Joseph Hardie of Selma, Ala., who is to be the principal speaker. Mr Hardie is a practical business man, who is traveling through this section of country with Mrs Hardie and to-morrow evening will be the first and only opportunity our citizens will have of hearing this distinguished and eloquent lay speaker, who has attracted such extraordinary attention in other large cities of the coast. It is expected that one of our prominent citizens will preside. There will be some special musical attractions and the service, which will commence at 7:45, will be free to all. H. J. McCoy, of San Francisco, will also be present and participate in the service.

TOOK MORPHINE.—A man about 30 years of age, having the appearance and dress of a laborer, was found in a semi-conscious condition on the steps of the Revere house at Albany an evening or two since. On being approached by a policeman he handed him the following note: "Sick and discouraged—no money—among strangers. I have concluded to end a miserable existence. Let the world not judge me too harshly. I have taken three grains of morphine. No one knows what I have suffered." He refused to give any name and said he had no place to go. He thought he took the poison, which he said he obtained in Portland, about 6 P. M. He was assisted to No. One's engine rooms and medical assistance was summoned. A search failed to reveal any pocketbook or papers containing his name, and no one who saw him last night knew him. At last accounts he still remained in a heavy stupor.

CARBONIC ACID DID IT.—A young man who noticed an item in these columns some time since about half a bushel of ivy vines growing from a half gallon flower pot without any diminution of the soil contained therein, writes that he has discovered how it was done. From one of his books he quotes as follows: "This growth was elaborated from the carbonic acid of the atmosphere sent out from the millions of fires and furnaces and chimneys on the earth, and countless myriads of human lungs. Although carbonic acid constitutes but one two thousandth part of the whole air, Professor Dalton computes that there are rather more than thirty tons of it above each acre of ground. If this should be concentrated into tangible form like so much coal or sand, we should begin to form some notion of the amount of material dissolved in the air."

SET FOR HEARING.—A couple of years ago George W. Philbrick was shot on G street by Patrick O. Smith. Philbrick was laid up in the hospital for some time, and on getting out, sued Smith for damages, and the jury that tried the case gave him a verdict for $5000. In the meantime Smith transferred some of his property to T. [illegible] and Philbrick's attorney commenced proceedings to have the transfer set aside, claiming it was made for the purpose of preventing Philbrick from collecting the judgment obtained. Col. J. K. Kelly was appointed referee to take testimony in the case, and according to an order of Judge Stearns not required to make findings, but simply report the testimony. The referee has reported, and yesterday Judge Stearns set the case for hearing on the testimony as submitted by the referee October 13.

LAST AMONG FRIENDS AT LAST.—Coroner Ross went to Skipanon yesterday, says the Astorian, on rather a [illegible] errand, the disinterment of the body of Enoch Watt, one of the two men drowned [illegible] sloop Emma near there last November. The father of the deceased, James F. Watt, arrived here last Wednesday from Goodland, Ind., to take the remains of his son back home. He is the father of eleven children, six boys and five girls. The drowned man was his second son. The other unfortunate occupant of the ill-fated sloop, Thomas Stuart, was disinterred last June and sent to his people in Ferndale, Humboldt county, Cal. The two were neighbors in Goodland, Ind., and came from Scotland together.

HE CAME BACK.—John Coon and James Williams were up before Police Judge Dement yesterday to answer to a charge of trespass in sleeping in W. Jackson & Co.'s barn. They pleaded guilty, when his honor asked policeman Belcher: "Is Coon the man you tried on the dock some time ago?" "Yes," answered Belcher, "we tried and convicted him and sentenced him to leave town." He left but came back in a few days. Williams was sent below for ten days and Coon for fifteen days. They will remain in town during this time.

PAINTERS TAKE A TUMBLE.—While J. Weaver, J. H. Farr and Robert McPhearson were painting on Mr. Opitz's building, on Nineteenth and D streets, about 10 o'clock yesterday forenoon, one of the large hooks from which the staging was suspended broke, precipitating all three of them to the ground, a distance of about twenty feet. Mr Farr was severely bruised about the shoulders, Mr McPhearson's knee was injured and Weaver received a gash in his scalp.

[illegible] W. C. T. U. will give one of their pleasant socials this evening at their hall on First street, between Jefferson and Columbia. The following programme is arranged: Duet, Miss A. Russ and Miss M. Smith; recitation, Miss Josie Graves; trio, Messrs. Pierce; recitation, Miss Downs, elocutionist; duet, Miss Fay and Mr Winter; comical recitation, Mr Leonhart. Refreshments will then be served and a general good time enjoyed.

GOING EAST.—Rev Dr Atkinson and wife will go East on Wednesday via the N. P. R. R., to attend the National Congregational council to be held in Chicago October 13-20. They plan also to attend the annual meeting of the American board of Commissioners for Foreign Missions, to be held in Des Moines, Iowa, October [illegible]. Dr Atkinson can be addressed care of Rev Dr F. A. Noble, [illegible] Washington boulevard, Chicago.

[illegible] VERACITY.—Wm. Wood, a junk dealer on Ash street between Third and Fourth, was arrested yesterday on a charge of receiving stolen goods. Detective Barry, who arrested Wood, accuses him of purchasing pig iron stolen by [illegible] Mooney. Wood stoutly denies purchasing the iron from Mooney and Mooney says he [illegible]. The case will be called for trial to-day in the [illegible] court.

FATAL ACCIDENT.—E. D. Latourette, a pioneer resident of Clackamas county, aged 67 years, died at his residence on Friday last. His leg was badly crushed on Thursday by a log rolling on it. The injured limb was amputated by Dr Taylor, but the shock to his system was so great that he could not [illegible]. Mr Latourette was a respected citizen. He leaves several grown up children and a second wife.

[illegible] Sunday night Ah Bok, a Chinaman, was arrested on complaint of Chris [illegible] for attempt to commit burglary. Bok tried to break into [illegible] through one of the [illegible]. When [illegible] over the [illegible] in the police [illegible] yesterday Bok pleaded "no sabe," and the [illegible] was put over. To-morrow an interpreter will [illegible] on hand to explain matters to Bok.

[illegible] CONCERT.—The concert at the Unitarian [illegible] corner of Yamhill and Seventh streets, under the direction of Mr [illegible], will take place this evening. Tickets can be purchased at Jones Bros., Prentice's music store and Ayers' book store, the price of admission being 50 cents. The programme is an excellent one.

RECEPTION.—Rev. W. M. Molleneaux, the new pastor of Taylor street M. E. church, and family will be tendered a reception this evening in the lecture room of the church. All are invited to be present and take advantage of this [illegible] opportunity to make their acquaintance.

RECEIPT OF MONEY ACKNOWLEDGED.—Mayor Gates received yesterday a telegram from Mayor Courtenay of Charleston gratefully acknowledging the receipt of $2450.50, the sum telegraphed in aid of the Charleston sufferers.

THE STAGE.

NEW MARKET THEATER.—Any one dropping into this temple of amusement last evening without having seen the flaming posters that adorn the bill boards and fences about the city would have been at a loss to determine the precise nature of the entertainment that was being dished up to the fairly large audience present; but had he happened to make his entrance during what was called the third act he would have instantly settled upon the fact that he had struck a variety show. To call the aggregation of idiocies and inane conversations (heaven save the mark) which go to make up this much advertised production a comedy or even a play is an atrocious libel upon language. It is even worse than "Peck's Bad Boy," which we had deemed nothing could well surpass in the way of utter rot. Burt Stanley as the Widow Partington does not compare with either Neil Burgess or Bishop as a delineator of the garrulous old woman, and as for Gus Tixley there was not an iota of the fun producing element in anything he did. He was positively repulsive in his feeble attempts at humor. The remainder of the company, with the exception of John Marr, who carried off such honors in the variety line as were to be had, was equal to the merits of the so called play. Had Manager Howe been aware that he was engaging a 15 cent variety company we are sure they would never have appeared at this theater.

The Rude Brakeman Again.

Lowell Courier.

"Is this the right train?" a lady asked of a brakeman the other day. "Where are you going, ma'am?" replied the brakeman. "None of your business, sir," retorted the lady. "I shall report you to the superintendent for impudence." And she actually did.

STUBBORN FIRE.

An Ugly Blaze in Zan Bros' Establishment which was Difficult to Handle—Heavy Loss.

About twenty five minutes to 1 o'clock yesterday afternoon a fire broke out in the upper story of the building occupied by Zan Bros., dealers and manufacturers of brooms, brushes, willow ware etc., at Nos 12 and 14 North Front street. As near as can be ascertained the fire caught from a defective flue that runs up against the wall in about the center portion of the building. When discovered the flames were skirting along the roof in a sheet between Zan's and that portion of the adjoining building occupied by James Laidlaw. The fire got through into the upper story of No 14, which is used as a storeroom, and to this portion of the building it was mainly confined, the lower floor being damaged by smoke and water and the cellar flooded to a depth of four or five feet. The department quickly responded and at once got to work, sending in a number of streams from the front and three from the rear of the building. Feeding as it did on dry, inflammable material, such as brooms, brushes, willow ware and mats, the fire spread rapidly. There was a stiff breeze blowing, and the clouds of smoke which came out through the windows were blinding and suffocating, it being with difficulty that the firemen could stand up against them. The heat was also intense and several times the boys were forced back to try and catch a breath of fresh air. They battled bravely however and soon had the satisfaction of getting the fire under control. It took several hours to thoroughly extinguish it, as brooms and mats had been routed out and spread out on the floor so the fire which had crept into every conceivable crevice could be got at. Considering the location and character of the fire it was admirably handled.

On the north side of the factory up stairs were the offices occupied by Messrs Meyer, Wilson & Co. (front), and James Laidlaw & Co. (rear). Neither of the offices sustained the least damage either from fire or water. Of course dense volumes of smoke filled the offices during the fire, but there was nothing in either to be damaged by this. Down stairs at the corner of Front and B streets is the store of Messrs Sutton & Beebe, but fortunately no damage resulted. A little water came through under the partition, but the loss resulting from this is not worthy of mention. On the south side of Zan Bros is the store of Messrs Watson & Wright, but this firm also fortunately escaped with nominal loss.

The loss sustained by Zan Bros by fire and water is estimated at from $30,000 to $40,000. The broom factory was not injured. Zan Bros occupied twenty five feet of the southern part of Capt. Flanders's building and twenty five feet of the northern part of W. S. Ladd's building. Flanders's building, No 14, was the one that was damaged, the rooms being burned through and partially caved in. It is insured for $3,000. Ladd's building, No 12, was but slightly damaged. On No 14, where the damage occurred, Zan Bros are insured in the following companies: Commercial $1000, Phoenix & Home $1000, Phoenix of London $4000, Firemen's association (L. L. Reed agency) $1000, Union of San Francisco $3000, Hartford $1700, Commercial of San Francisco $3000, Firemen's Fund of San Francisco $2000, Oakland Home $1000, Imperial of London $1000, Scottish Union and National $1000, No 12, State Investment (on stock) $800 (on machinery) $400, Lion (on stock) $1960 (on machinery) $10, Hamburg Bremen $1750.

DIVORCES GRANTED.

Judge Stearns yesterday granted Martha King a divorce from C. H. King, on the ground of cruel treatment. They were married at Springfield, Illinois, December 12, 1868. The children—Arthur W., aged 1[illegible], Lucilla, aged 15, Margaret A., aged 11, and Carrie K., aged [illegible] years—are awarded to the care and custody of plaintiff.

D. Vanhorn has been granted a divorce from Mary J. Vanhorn. They were married in New York in the year 1858 and he alleges in the year 18[illegible] she deserted him.

SUITS COMMENCED.

Nellie Grant has commenced suit in the state circuit court against R. H. Acker to recover possession of a buggy of the value of $100 and $10 damages for the unlawful withholding of it. Plaintiff alleges she stored buggy with defendant and was to pay therefor one dollar per month. That she demanded possession and that defendant refused to comply with the request.

John Pender yesterday brought suit in the state circuit court against Van B. De Lashmutt. For cause of action plaintiff alleges that September 11th, 188[illegible], at Salem plaintiff sold and delivered to defendant a certain mare called "Nautilla," for $[illegible], which sum plaintiff agreed to pay on demand and gave a due bill therefor. On September [illegible] plaintiff demanded payment and defendant refused. Wherefore plaintiff prays judgment and for interest and costs.

POLICE COURT.

The dock was well filled yesterday, principally with drunks who were soon disposed of in the usual manner. Thomas Cullman, arrested for assault and battery on Mrs. Kate Cullman, his wife, pleaded not guilty, and had his case set for examination to-day. Cullman was released on $30 bail. When the case of Ah Sing and Ah Charley, charged with fighting, was called, Ah Charley failed to respond and his bail of $10 was declared forfeit. [illegible] Sing's case was continued until to-day. The case of Thomas Shortell, of gambling, was also put over.

JUSTICE'S COURT.

In Justice Tuttle's court yesterday, Mrs. Annie [illegible] was tried on a charge of larceny by bailee, preferred by Mr. McDonell. It appears that Mrs. McDonell rented part of the house occupied by Mrs. Leineker as a subtenant. A [illegible] arose about rent and Mrs McDonell moved out and Mrs. Leineker retained some wearing apparel for rent she claimed was due her. On the trial of the case it came out that the property had been restored to its owner and that Mrs. Leineker did not intend to commit any crime, but thought she had a legal right to seize the clothing and hold it. On this showing the case was dismissed.

The suit of A. Burgoin vs. Watson Wright & Co. was tried yesterday before Justice Tuttle. [illegible] sued to recover $1[illegible], being a balance he alleged was due him for services rendered and labor performed. Judgment was rendered in favor of defendants and for costs and disbursements.

Yesterday C. W. Wolter caused the arrest of S. Greene for assault and battery, in Justice Tuttle's court. Greene was held in bail to appear for trial to-day at 10 o'clock.

THE EAST SIDE.

ANOTHER DYNAMITE EXPLOSION.

Yesterday morning at [illegible] o'clock a loud explosion of the [illegible] was heard throughout the city and many people ran from their houses to the streets thinking it was a shock of earthquake, but they were mistaken, for it was caused by some [illegible] placing a charge of powder under the corner of Ah Sing's laundry on I street near the [illegible] crossing. A number of people were walking upon the street at the time saw the flash and heard the report simultaneously. Luckily no further damage was done except scaring the Chinamen and the occupants of the buildings in the vicinity. Night policeman Robertson made an examination of the premises and found a piece of fuse covered with tar about three yards in length under the corner of the building.

FATHER BOUCHARD IN EAST PORTLAND.

The Rev. Father Bouchard, of San Francisco, who has been preaching a jubilee throughout Montana, Idaho and other places, occupied the pulpit at St. Francis Catholic church, in this city, on Sunday morning last. His discourse was principally explanatory of the jubilee now in progress throughout the Catholic world by order of his holiness Pope Leo XIII. St. Francis church will be the scene of these devotions under the charge of Father Bouchard from Thursday morning until Saturday evening, when a lecture will be given by the eminent speaker.

BRIDGE TIMBERS ARRIVED.

The heavy timbers to be used in the construction of the new Morrison street bridge are being furnished by H. A. Hogue, who has a contract with the bridge company to furnish 11,000 feet. The steam scow Enterprise arrived yesterday with ninety pieces of various sizes and lengths.

FINE ELK ANTLERS.

The head and antlers of the large elk brought in by H. W. Prettyman on his return from the late hunting expedition in the mountains between Yaquina bay and Tillamook bay have been handsomely mounted and will be used as a hat rack at his residence. The girt of the horns at the roots is thirteen inches, their length from tip to tip, measuring around the nose, is just eleven feet, and the distance between tips four feet. They are supposed to be the finest pair in the state.

ACCIDENTS.

On Saturday afternoon last Lute Lindsay, the horse breaker, was out riding in a roadcart and leading a horse behind. The animal became a little fractious and determined not to follow, but continued pulling to one side until the cart upset, and Lindsay was thrown out, striking heavily on his side, causing him considerable pain, but he held on to the lines and managed to get up, and after turning the cart to its proper position got in and drove to his home in Brooklyn. He suffered some pain through the night, but had no idea anything serious was the matter until yesterday, when swelling commenced. A physician was sent for, who upon examination found the second floating rib broken. The fracture was reduced and the patient made as comfortable as circumstances would allow.

On Saturday afternoon last, while Mr W. W. McGuire was out buggy riding in the vicinity of Thirteenth and J streets, the backstrap broke and the horse started to run away and kicked over the dashboard, breaking it and slightly grazing Mr McGuire's shins. The horse continued to run on three legs for a short distance, but was finally stopped by running into a bank on the side of the street. The bill for repairs will not be large.

TERMINAL FACILITIES.

The Construction of Northern Pacific Machine Shops in East Portland Decided Upon—The Bridge and Depot.

The committee of the board of trade upon terminal facilities in Portland, Messrs. McCraken, Hughes and Arnold, called upon Mr C. H. Prescott yesterday to inquire what were the prospects for the better handling of freight and the better accommodation of passengers here, and obtained information of the most gratifying character. Mr Prescott stated that the last advices received by him from Mr Elijah Smith were to the effect that Mr Harris, on behalf of the Northern Pacific road, had consented that the improvements on the east side of the river should be commenced immediately, consisting of machine shops, etc.

"I expect," said Mr Prescott, "any day to get advices to commence work immediately.

"I have also received a letter from Mr Elijah Smith," he continued, "asking if the papers are all ready to submit to the legislature when it convenes in January for a charter for the bridge. He is so anxious about the matter that he wants the papers all ready now, and he thinks he will order the material for the bridge, thinking there can be no question but that the privilege will be granted by the legislature.

"The completion of the facilities on the east side of the river and the bridge," said Mr Prescott in conclusion, "will necessitate facilities on this side for handling the freight, and also a union passenger depot for the convenience of all the lines going out of Portland, whether they cross the river or go out on this side."

A Minister Deserts the Pulpit for the Bar.

SUIT TO RECOVER MILLIONS

Verdict of Acquittal in the Seattle Riot Cases—A Murder Mystery Solved—A Chief of Police in Trouble.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 27.—The united labor party convention which held another session to-day degenerated into the veriest farce. Among the resolutions adopted was the following:

Resolved, That we favor, at the next national election for president W. D. Southworth of California, for vice-president T. V. Powderly of Pennsylvania.

Southworth is a well known professional labor agitator but who in all probability is not personally acquainted with any kind of labor. To place him ahead of T. V. Powderly, who is too well known to need any biographical mention on any ticket, is as absurd as reversing the relative spheres of action of the sun and moon. Further nominations were made as follows: Secretary of state, J. J. Martin of this city; controller, D. J. Rice; treasurer, Senator Lauther of Sacramento. In the nomination for attorney-general the status of the convention was made clear if it had not been so previously. Among the aspirants was Burnette G. Haskell, one of the biggest demagogues on the Pacific coast, one who indeed has out-Kearneyed Kearney in blatherskitism, and one who is a leach on every labor organization with which he may be attached. The nomination however fell to the lot of Mrs. Laura De Force Gordon. Considerable fear agitates the convention over this nomination on the ground that the nominee may not be legally qualified to practice in the position of attorney-general should she be miraculously elected.

THE PULPIT FOR THE BAR.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. [illegible].—A [illegible] the [illegible] Congregational [illegible] called [illegible] Second and Seventh streets, [illegible] Witter. Last [illegible] Mr. Witter announced his resignation, desiring that it might take effect immediately, and proceeded to preach his farewell sermon. In closing he spoke of the pleasant relations he had maintained with the church and gave the reasons for thus suddenly resigning the pastorate. He said he was educated for the bar but was prevented from entering upon the practice of the law and forced into the ministry by a very distressing family affliction. He was sensible that he was not adapted to the ministry and had for some time desired to leave the pulpit for the bar. Providence had seemed to hedge up his way. At last however the way was open to him and he proposed to leave not only his pastorate but the profession. It is said that Mr. Witter has made arrangements to enter a law firm in this city. Great surprise and regret were expressed by the congregation over the sudden and unexpected change.

SUIT TO RECOVER MILLIONS.

There is now on trial before Judge [illegible] the case of Mrs. M. C. Wheeler against J. R. Bolter. In 1850 Wm. L. Carmen died and Bolter was appointed administrator of his estate. In 18[illegible] the administrator filed his final account and sent the proceeds to his widow, since married again, the plaintiff in this action. Plaintiff alleges that at the time of his death Carmen was in possession of seventy-two acres of land in or near the Mission Dolores, then of the value of $6000. This land has since appreciated in value and is now worth $2,000,000, for the recovery of which sum suit was brought. All of the land has since been taken up by squatters. In his answer defendant states that he was and is ignorant of the fact that Carmen was possessed of such property and consequently knows nothing about it.

BACK FROM A CRUISE.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 2[illegible].—The United States surveying cutter McArthur, Capt. J. M. Helm, arrived yesterday from her surveying cruise along the Alaskan shores. In conjunction with the government's other surveying steamer the Patterson, she made a survey of some 1500 miles of bay and river territory, commencing at a point named Red bay, south of Sitka, up to a harbor named Port McArthur, about 100 miles from Sitka. Officers of the McArthur stated that they had not heard anything of the Amethyst, the missing whaler, nor of her crew. Neither had they seen or heard anything of pirate sealers. The country surveyed was of the usual Alaskan character. Nothing of great importance was ascertained. Natives were plenty and so were the salmon, which latter [illegible] reported as being of excellent quality.

DEEPER CUTS PROBABLE.

T. P. Goodman has received a telegram from F. H. Ford of the Pennsylvania lines postponing the meeting of general passenger agents, which was to have been held here on the 12th prox., until Tuesday the 26th prox. The change was made in consequence of the inability of several prominent railroad men to be present on the earlier date. As this puts the possibility of the formation of a passenger association further off than ever, there will probably be deeper cuts made until such time as agents combine among themselves and agree to maintain rates.

FATHER OF THE LAND LEAGUE.

Michael Davitt arrived this morning from Monterey. He was looking in splendid health. The advent of Davitt, father of the land league, has evoked extraordinary enthusiasm among the Irish people of the city. Judging from the sale of tickets already made, his lecture in aid of the western fisheries on the coast of Galway to-morrow evening will draw a very large audience at the Grand opera house.

GLOVE CONTEST POSTPONED.

The glove contest between Jack Burke and Jack Dempsey, which was originally fixed to take place this evening, has been postponed on account of the failure to procure the necessary city license. No date will be fixed until a license shall be procured.

HELD FOR TRIAL.

Dr. J. H. Josselyn, charged with murder for having caused the death of the young actress Sarah Ladd Lawson, was held for trial in the superior court to-day, with bail fixed at $[illegible]00.

NOMINATION DECLINED.

TRUCKEE, Sept. [illegible].—C. F. M. Gla[illegible] has sent a communication to the united labor party declining the nomination for governor.

[illegible] THE WORLD [illegible] TO AN END.

ATLANTA, Ga., Sept. [illegible].—For three nights past citizens of the northern part of Atlanta claim to have seen [illegible] meteors, each marked by bloody lines. A belated pedestrian first observed the phenomena. He awoke several families in the neighborhood, who bear witness to seeing the same marvelous exhibition. At first the matter was told in whispers, but seeing the manifestations a second and third time they have become convinced that there is something portentous about it. The negroes accept it as a fulfillment of the prophecy that there shall be signs in the heavens before the end of the world, which event they now claim will take place on the 29th. Protests [illegible] exhibitions of superstition which took place to-day at various places of worship for the colored people were almost beyond belief.

EARTHQUAKES AT WILMINGTON.

WILMINGTON, N. C., Sept. [illegible].—There were two earthquake shocks at Smithville, one at 11:30 last night and one at 4:40 this morning. No damage was done.

CHARLESTON, S. C., Sept. [illegible].—A slight earthquake shock was felt here at two minutes past 5 o'clock this afternoon, accompanied by a loud rumbling sound. The wave moved from north to south. The shock lasted about two seconds. Houses were shaken perceptibly and a number of persons rushed into the streets. No damage was [illegible] beyond the falling of loose plaster. The same shock was also felt at Savannah [illegible] and Summerville.

AUGUSTA, Sept. [illegible].—There was a slight shock of earthquake here at [illegible] o'clock.

A MURDER MYSTERY SOLVED.

[illegible], N. H., Sept. [illegible].—A mysterious murder in a [illegible] near New Barrington last night has been solved. Rochester officers on hearing the news started for Islington bridge, where they were told that the dead body of a French Canadian woodchopper had been found in a field near Lee. It was then learned that three French Canadian woodchoppers, residents of Strafford, started yesterday afternoon for Barrington. They had been [illegible] freely. All three started for home in one [illegible]. On the way two of them became involved in a [illegible] and [illegible] stabbed the [illegible] with a clasp knife. A CHIEF OF POLICE IN TROUBLE.

NEW YORK, Sept. [illegible].—William Mahedy, chief of police of Saratoga, was arrested this evening on a charge of attempted extortion of money on a warrant sworn out by Gustave Loridon. The complaint states that Mahody had a warrant for Loridon's son on a charge of forgery. He proposed to the father to let the boy off for $3000 cash, but afterward modified the demand to $2,500. Mahody consented to throw off $500, but not a cent more, because he said he had to divide with the district attorney and police justice of Saratoga. Loridon went out and got a warrant and with a court officer and his lawyer went back to the [illegible] house, where the negotiations were had with Mahody. Then before witnesses Mahody said the money must be paid or the boy must go. Then Mahody was arrested. Loridon says the check was forged by a friend of his son who claimed Mahody was his uncle. The forgery was done at Saratoga, where young Loridon's friend had enticed him to bet on horse races and where he became strapped.

ANSWER No. 3 TO MRS. OWENS-ADAIR.

SALEM, Sept. 2[illegible].

TO THE EDITOR OF THE OREGONIAN:

If my esteemed friend Mrs. Owens Adair had not been a sympathizer with the pro-slavery side of the great rebellion, even from its ante bellum days, she would not need to ask me at this late date to tell her "in all candor what did bring about the abolition of slavery."

It seems incredible that anybody should now be found in the Northern states who does not know that pro-slavery rebels conspired to destroy the Union to protect slavery, and for this purpose brought on the war which culminated in the overthrow of the institution they sought by force of arms to foster and perpetuate. Anti-slavery agitators at the North may have hastened the conflict by furnishing the prohibitionists of human liberty at the South with a pretext for attempting to withdraw from the Union, but they did not inaugurate the war. The rebels did it by firing upon Fort Sumter and in divers ways defying the authority of the general government.

It is a pleasure to me always to answer the "candid" questions of prohibitionists concerning the history of the rebellion, out of which they are now trying to make capital, ostensibly for a new party, by capturing gudgeon republicans with democratic bait.

Prohibition has accomplished for the democratic party what the united forces of religion failed to do for slavery. It has re-enthroned democracy, and with sufficient aid from republican reverends like Lyman Miller, Watts, Webb et al, who persist in being deceived by its pretenses, it seems likely to keep it there until long after the prohibition party is disbanded and dead. And yet there are lions in the way. The gudgeon republicans are all taken, and the democratic party will soon cease to put up money to sustain that excellent publication the Prohibition Star, after it learns by election experience that no more gudgeons remain to be caught.

I am not blaming the democratic party for its political finesse. It has great reason to congratulate itself upon its success thus far, and is encouraged to renewed activity by the sophomorical persistence of the reverends aforesaid, one of whom, a man presumably "of some influence," who swallows democratic bait and pronounces it "prohibition brand," [illegible] himself, says [illegible] she [illegible] supposes that laws should be enacted to forbid producing more than a certain quantity of corn, apples, grapes, etc., enough for consumption, so that there should be no surplus for making liquors. ([illegible] exclamations mine.)

Since Mrs. Adair [illegible] fails to meet my argument, I will not refute her platitudes, which really have no bearing upon the question at issue, namely the infeasibility of prohibition and the utter inadaptability of the means it proposes for the accomplishment of its ostensible aim, the reality of which I have outlined as above and can bring forward plenty of proof to sustain, in the shape of results already achieved by its abettors.

Mrs. Adair [illegible] her entire [illegible] that [illegible] we have laws for regulating the sale of opium [illegible] to the drug stores. [illegible] she gives her whole case away, so far as prohibition doctors, clergymen and druggists are concerned, by saying: "I am willing and anxious that the sale of alcohol shall be confined to the drug stores."

Such an arrangement would soon feather the nests of the respectable, educated and honorable triumvirate of whom she is [illegible], if the people of the United States would submit to it, and they might if all alcoholic, malt and vinous liquors were made of poppies and all the industry and capital connected with their manufacture were confined to China.

If prohibition doctors could have their way, intoxicating liquors for medicinal, sacramental and scientific purposes (see sec. 12 of Washington territory local option law) would soon be in steady demand at the drug stores, and physicians would coin money by furnishing prescriptions—don't you see?

With a power like this in the hands of a great alcoholic monopoly it would be much easier than it now is to crush out the testimony of a gentleman who would dare to tell (not "boast") of which he had seen in prohibition drug stores. To accuse a man of having "sunk so low" that he ought not to be believed because he frankly tells that he has bought whisky for his stomach's sake on his own prescription instead of a doctor's at such a place, doesn't necessarily impeach the witness, Mrs. Owens Adair.

You needn't lay the flattering unction to your soul that the triumvirate you favor will ever get the monopoly they covet. There are too many temperance people in America who will not submit to the application of a prohibition plaster to allow your experience to be tried. They know it would only aggravate the evils it ostensibly seeks to control; that it would not reach the root of drunkenness, but would only hedge it round with an appearance of respectability that would feed and foster the drink habit.

I met a certain enterprising druggist at the state fair, a pronounced prohibitionist and third party man, who is as willing and anxious to corner the liquor market in the drug stores as my friend Mrs. Adair. And I am told by temperance friends that this prohibition druggist is not only accused of selling liquor in a back room on tap and behind the counter by the bottle (paying no license tax), but he violates the Sunday law and occasionally gets boozy himself. And my informants have not "sunk low" either.

In reply to my question as to why they did not prosecute him, they called my attention to my own statement in the New Northwest that Mr. Prosecuting Attorney McBride had informed me that he had found it impossible to enforce any moral statute, however ironclad, against which one-fifth of the people set their verdict of opposition. If they can not defeat they will elude such laws, but they can generally manage to defeat them by "hanging" a jury, if in no other way. Mr. McBride says that any experienced attorney must admit (if to nobody but himself) that the only hope for the moral improvement of the race is through increased liberty and its complement, responsibility, for the mothers of men.

The jockery of prohibition comes directly in contact with the equal rights movement, the only true basis of temperance reform, and retards it. It incites voters by millions to fight woman suffrage who otherwise would not care to oppose it, and every woman who stands behind the prison bars of her own political environment, saying to men "give me my liberty and I will circumscribe yours," is doubly arming the foes of woman's freedom and doing the temperance cause great harm.

Even a prohibitionist ought to be able to understand that human nature cannot be successfully coerced into moral behavior by political espionage. I have read somewhere of a company of Jesuits who formerly lived in Southern California, who, in their zeal to make converts to their faith, would hunt the Indians down and club them to the baptismal font, where they would forcibly baptize them to save their souls. The scheme seemed to work well for awhile, but by and by the pious zealots were turned upon by the "saved" Indians and clubbed to death for their pains.

The education and respectability of those Jesuitical prohibitionists of unbelief fell powerless before the boomerang of force they had themselves erected. And so some day would it be with prohibition drug stores, if you could make them succeed as a monopoly. But you can never do that. Liquors will be sold outside of drug stores till the demand ceases, and the den and will never cease while temperance agitators brandish prohibition clubs.

The grand old party, of which my friend so far forgets her guise of prohibition as to speak contemptuously, will not prove the decaying ship of her wishes if it lives up to its time-honored principles, as lately voiced by its managers in Washington territory, where, since women are voters, it can afford to pronounce anew the grand proclamation of liberty for all the people which first inspired it and made it grand.

Nor will the democratic party die. It has awakened lately from its old time lethargy and in [illegible] the boomerang of slavery that brought it low has clothed itself anew with prophecies of a glorious future. It is almost done with prohibition, its erstwhile convenient catspaw, which is destined soon to be left in the lurch, like Issachar of old, crouching between two burdens.

Last year the two months export was 12,[illegible]; in 1884 it was [illegible]; in 1883 it was 19,[illegible]; in 1882 it was [illegible]; in 1881 it was [illegible]; and in 1880 it was 44,818,601 bushels.

The lowest figure for this calendar year was 28,758,000 bushels on July [illegible], and the largest [illegible] 000 bushels on January [illegible]. The highest figure last calendar year was late in December. On September 25, 188[illegible], the supply was 44,206,[illegible] bushels, or [illegible] bushels less than at this time, while at the same date in 1884 the figure was [illegible] bushels. Between January [illegible] and July [illegible] last year the visible was over 40,000,000. For two weeks in July it was over 50,000,000, when it steadily increased to the close. During 1886 it decreased to July 24 and then began to crawl up.

FREIGHTS.—The Pass of Leny (iron) is [illegible] to the open list. Reports are out of a spot grain charter drawn late last week, but nothing definite can be learned of such a charter. The Mitredale has been credited with having secured flour and wheat business, but this is denied by her agents.

WHEAT.—Markets weak and unsatisfactory in the absence of any request. The American visible is piling up rapidly, and foreign buyers evidently have no fear of short supplies. Local receipts continue even, but the amount of business passing is small and the market is rather easy to sell in. Values are not changed from the last days of the preceding week.

OATS.—The feeling is easy because of advices, and there are few buyers at full prices. Receipts rule light. Quote 36@37½c.

MARKETS BY TELEGRAPH.

NEW YORK STOCK MARKET.

NEW YORK, Sept. 27.—Government bonds were dull and steady.

Stocks showed less activity than the average of last week. The opening was rather heavy, Pacific Mail, Union Pacific and Omaha being down ½ each, while changes in other active stocks were for insignificant amounts and about equally divided between gains and losses. There was an active trading in early dealings and the market was weak, especially Jersey Central and Western Union, but extraordinary strength in New England soon rallied the list, after which the market was comparatively firm until the last hour, when the bears raided the list, and everything was carried down to the lowest of the day, with the exception of New England. The market closed weak. Final prices almost invariably show material declines, to which New England and Pullman Palace were conspicuous exceptions, the former showing a gain of [illegible] per cent and the latter [illegible].

MARK LANE REVIEW.

LONDON, Sept. 27.—The Mark Lane Express in its weekly review of the British grain trade says: Trade was exceedingly slow, but prices were sustained. English crops of wheat were in best demand. Sales of English wheat during the past week were 6[illegible] quarters at 30s [illegible]d against [illegible] quarters at 30s 7d during the corresponding week last year. Flour was slow of sale owing to large stocks and continued American arrivals. Fine malting barleys are very scarce. Trade in foreign wheats was dragging. The large and rapidly increasing visible supply in America presses the trade here. American flour is 3d cheaper. Prices of round corn favor buyers. Oats were in large supply and cheaper. One cargo of wheat arrived. About fourteen sailing vessels with wheat from Chilian and other Pacific ports are due. Trade forward is somewhat steadier. At to-day's market there was no improvement in the wheat trade. American and inferior English wheats were cheaper. Flour was dull. American flour in some instances was lower than on Monday. Prices of barleys had a downward tendency.

BEERBOHM.

LONDON, Sept. 27.—Floating cargoes quiet; two arrivals ordered to home ports. Cargoes on passage quiet. For California, January-February shipment, 35s [illegible]d was paid. To-day's Mark Lane market: English wheats were turn easier; foreign wheats quiet; and English and American flour turn easier. English and French country markets very quiet. Farmers' deliveries past week 50,000 to 55,000 qrs wheat.

DR. JOHN BULL'S
Or CHILLS and FEVER,
AND ALL MALARIAL DISEASES.

The proprietor of this celebrated medicine justly claims for it a superiority over all remedies ever offered to the public for the SAFE, CERTAIN, SPEEDY and PERMANENT cure of Ague and Fever, or Chills and Fever, whether of short or long standing. He refers to the entire Western and Southern country to bear him testimony to the truth of the assertion that in no case whatever will it fail to cure if the directions are strictly followed and carried out. In a great many cases a single dose has been sufficient for a cure, and whole families have been cured by a single bottle, with a perfect restoration of the general health. It is, however, prudent, and in every case more certain to cure, if its use is continued in smaller doses for a week or two after the disease has been checked, more especially in difficult and long-standing cases. Usually this medicine will not require any aid to keep the bowels in good order. Should the patient, however, require a cathartic medicine, after having taken three or four doses of the Tonic, a single dose of KENT'S VEGETABLE FAMILY PILLS will be sufficient. Use no other.

Cancer of the Tongue
My wife some three or four years ago was troubled with an ulcer on the side of her tongue near the throat. The pain was incessant, causing loss of sleep and producing great nervous prostration. Accompanying this trouble was rheumatism. It had passed from the shoulders and centered in the wrist of one hand, she almost losing the use of it. Between the suffering of the two, life had grown burdensome. By the use of a half dozen small sized bottles of Swift's Specific, she was entirely relieved and restored to health. This was three years ago, and there has been no return of the disease.
